Experience the High of Evangelism

Sharing the Good News of the Kingdom of God will give you an amazing “high.” It takes time and a lot of work, sometimes years, but the time and energy you invest in it is well worth it; not only for the individual you are sharing with, but for you as well! The euphoric feeling cannot be described, but must be experienced. Once you have braved a first attempt at evangelism and sharing your faith, you will soon know why it becomes addictive. It is a thrill that you can’t experience when doing anything else!

I met with a lady a few weeks ago. We have been developing a relationship and she is open to exploring what the Bible teaches about God and Jesus. We both desire to reach out to Muslims and give them a better option. Her passion lies in helping rescue the young girls and women who are being abused. My passion is in showing them that true Christians believe in the One True God and His human Messiah Jesus.

As we dialoged, we were creating ideas as to how we might reach out to them. Then we stopped. She looked at me and we both knew what the other was thinking. In order to work together, we must both be in agreement as to who God is (how many He is) and who Jesus is.

Filled with God’s spirit, I leaned in and fervidly shared how I thought that this was the only way to really reach Muslims, having them understand that God is one God, and not a trinity. She shared her concern that Muslims believe in one God and so that concept must be wrong. I reminded her that Jews also believed in one God and that Jesus was a Jew. She stared in amazement and said that she had never thought about that! We are going to continue working through this so please lift us up in prayer. Thank you!

Majo is always on the lookout for people who might be open to the Kingdom message.

He takes great interest in people, invests in them, and when he has an opportunity, he shares the wonderful Kingdom hope.

This past week Majo asked me to interoperate for him and talk to a lady he met on Facebook who speaks Russian.

When we connected on WhatsApp, we found out she didn’t speak any English, and obviously he doesn’t speak Russian. But even so, Majo somehow connected with her and tried to share the amazing Kingdom hope that we have. When he saw she was open to talk, he reached out to me since he knew I spoke Russian.

We had a wonderful discussion (about two hours!) and we began to develop a relationship. Unfortunately, this takes time, and that’s not something I have a lot of. Please pray for us.

Outreach to Muslims

Watch YouTube Video

A message from an ex-Muslim about this video.

“I’ve just seen the video and once again you have done an amazing job! It is short and sweet, and addresses the very issues that Muslims are challenged with. As an ex-Muslim, I understand their mindset, especially about the whole committing shirk against God based on their mistaken idea about what makes Jesus God’s son. They deny his sonship based on their own misunderstanding which comes from their scriptures. I think you researched this really well.

I also want to say that if I could, I would have openly shared this video on my Facebook page with my contacts. Unfortunately, Muslims are known to be very hostile people towards apostates, and I fear that I would face a lot of backlash from family and friends, most of who don’t know that I am a Christian. I have not reached that point in life where I feel that I am capable of facing the backlash and hostility.”

Please pray for this sister and for all Muslims who are disillusioned with Islam and searching for the true faith. Pray that they would not be led into a false Christianity that teaches a triune God. Pray for wisdom and courage for each one reading this that they would share with Muslims living around them the One TRUE God and that believing in the human Jesus as the Son of God is not an apostate belief.

A YouTube Comment on this video:

“Excellent video speaking so much truth! Clear, concise and to the point! I pray that Father helps all Muslims come across this.”

Book Printing in Russian

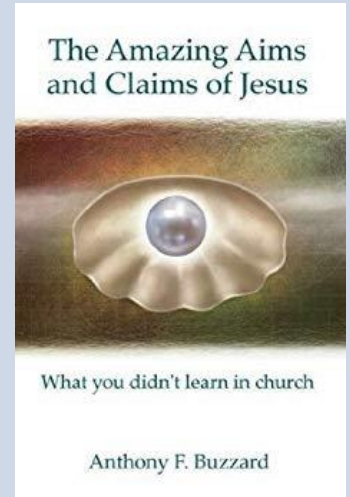

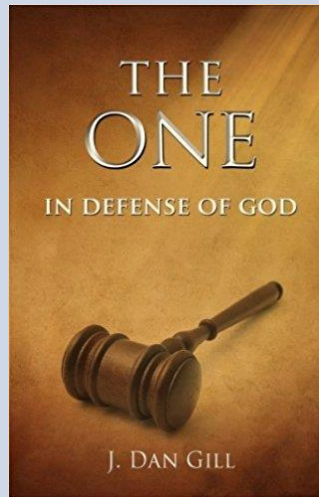

Books are an essential tool in Russian ministry. Many people do not have internet, and Russians have always valued books and are avid readers.

New contacts can explore at their own pace and then dialog with Maksim about what they have read.

Brethren are able to reinforce their faith and continue studying on their own.

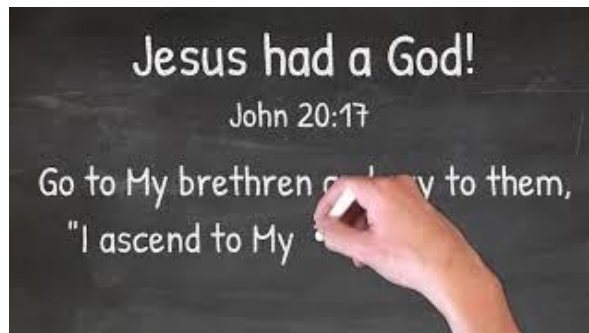

Please consider how you or your church might be able to help print these two books. Due to all of Maksim’s hardships over the past year, the books have been postponed. The need is great now and we must get them printed.

(Donation information at end of newsletter)

Only $3.50/book

1000 of each book

“I’m a Muslim and I approve this video. Jesus was a prophet of God, but not divine.”

Oregon, Illinois – March 15, 2020 – 4pm

I (Tracy) will be speaking at the Oregon Church of God on March 15th. If you are able to join us, we would love to have you. I will be presenting on Russia, past and present ministry. The presentation will be from 4-5pm and a Russian dinner will follow. Please reply to me to let me know if you will be attending so they can plan for food. Tracy@KOGmissions.com. Thank you!

Judy Myers

I wanted to give honor to whom honor is due. Judy Myers has given her life to mission work and has been a valuable partner and friend in my Kingdom service since the beginning. She has encouraged me and was key to me following my calling to go to Russia. She sacrificed much over the years and invested time, energy, and I am sure many tears, as she poured her heart into missions service. She is humble, and I am sure not happy that I am mentioning her, but I rise and thank her and would like to recognize her unrelentless mission efforts in COGMC and her willingness to support me and believe in me as I served and continue to serve. There are few people who have given as much of themselves, or sacrificed more, than Judy. She has never sought recognition and I know she will be rewarded greatly when Jesus returns. Thank you, Judy!

Theological Conference

A Gathering of Truth Seekers

Join Us, April 2-5, 2020

This is a FANTASTIC event and not as “boring” as the title may indicate! It is such a blessing to meet scattered brethren from all over the United States and the world! If you desire to grow in your love of truth and want to be encouraged by the testimonies of many who have found the great news of the coming Kingdom of God and the human Messiah Jesus, you don't want to miss it!

Please pray for Pastor Edwin from Peru. He still has not had surgery, so please pray that he will.

Keep Praying!

Jesus had a God!

John 20:17

Go to My brethren and say to them,
"I ascend to My Father and sit with Him, and yet I have not yet ascended to My Father, because I have not yet glorified Myself before My Father."
