How to Reach & Minister to:

Jehovah's Witnesses, Muslims, Trinitarians, & Catholics

KOG 3rd Annual Missions Conference will be held ONLINE this year. The focus of this year's conference will be on educating on number of different religions and people groups. There will be training on how you can witness to them or minister to their needs as they leave their organizations.

Are you prepared "to give an answer" to your faith and are you able to "argue" as Paul did when he was trying to convince people of the truth?

We will only have time to scratch the surface of these topics at the conference, but we must do our best to prepare ourselves and the next generation to be better equipped to walk in obedience to the Great Commission. The fields are white and we must be out in them.

Some topics we will address:

- What questions might you ask a JW, Catholic, Muslim, or Trinitarian?
- How would you answer, "What about John 1?"
- What would you say or where might you direct a Jehovah's Witness that is waking up or desiring to make their exodus from the Watchtower Organization, as many are?
- Do you understand the spiritual abuse?
- Do you see and acknowledge one of the largest mission fields that surrounds us all? Trinitarians must have the opportunity to hear the truth about the One True God and His human Messiah, Jesus! Do you love the truth enough to share it knowing that it is God's truths that save? (2 Thessalonians 2:10)
- How can we help those in Korea & Africa hear the Kingdom message?

Baptism & Fellowship

Pastor Maksim left last week to baptize our new brother Igor. He also plans to visit our sister Tatyana (pictured above) as well.

Please pray for his travels - safety, no headaches, and opportunities to share the Gospel of the Kingdom with those he encounters on the trains and busses.

Pray for Igor as he seals his commitment to follow Jesus. Pray for him as he renews his mind and chooses to walk in the spirit daily, rather than in his flesh.

A BIG thank you to all who contributed to making these travels possible!

JW Exodus Testimony

Lori Jane's first video aired last week as she shared her story of waking up while she was in Pioneer School.

She is not like many Jehovah's Witnesses who wake up, but never get out of bed. She is not like many who stay in the organization physically because they have family and friends that would disown them if they let them know that they saw the real truth that the Governing Body was not their mediator, nor the Watchtower God's organization. She is not like many who flee all religion, turn to the heretical teaching of the trinity, or worse yet, commit suicide.

God woke Lori Jane up and not only got her out of bed, but got her on His front lines helping others who are leaving the Watchtower organization. She is a front-line worker in the trenches every day being a light at the end of the tunnel for many people. She is taking action to be a resource so that those fleeing might find the truth about who Jesus really is and the true Kingdom hope.

Please pray for Lori Jane, her ministry, her family, and for all those who are brave enough to question the Organization and to type questions into Google hoping for answers.

You can also listen to an interview I did with Lori Jane about her struggles and journey as she planned her exodus. She is an amazing lady who found the strength to follow the truth wherever it lead her, and not only for herself, but for all who will follow suit. To God be the glory!

Book Match!

Books are an essential tool in Russian ministry.

Please consider how you or your church might be able to help print these two books. Due to all of Maksim's hardships over the past year, the books have been postponed. The need is great now and we must get them printed.

(Donation info in description: <https://youtu.be/ZtYodxDAMxs>)

Only $3.50/book

With the book match we only need 377 more books to meet our goal of 2000

First Online Theological Conference is in the Books!

Pastor Edwin (Peru) sharing his faith story & Carlos translating

In case you missed the first ever (and hopefully the last) online Theological Conference, you can find all of the presentations on Restoration Fellowship's You Tube Channel.

The faith stories were wonderful and it was great to hear people's journey to the truth from all over the world (Australia, Peru, India/Oman)!

It was a time of encouragement, a time to learn, a time to be challenged, and a time of fellowship. Lord willing next year we will be able to meet in person because while the church is gathered virtually and in spirit, intimate fellowship is the big thing that lacks when we meet online.

Check out the 2020 Theological Conference, leave some comments, and plan to attend next year, hopefully in person!

As Christians we all know that we are discriminated against in today's world. We may ask ourselves, "Why are Muslim bakers not "tested" to see if they will bake for a gay wedding and then plastered all over the news, and then attempted to be shut down if they refuse?" (We know that would be racist.)

Why aren't Muslims questioned about their faith and beliefs towards homosexuals or religious practices? In fact, often they are catered to at work and school. Christians can't bring Bibles or pray, yet Muslims can bring a rug and take time off to pray during the day.

Why can people say homosexuality is good, but we can't have our own opinion and say that God detests it? Aren't we all free to have our beliefs and opinions?

I was pondering these questions and I think I found an answer!

First let's examine these examples, Muslims and homosexuals. Homosexual supporters are not ashamed of their beliefs. They make sure you know what they support and what they believe. They have parades and are not ashamed to post all over Facebook. They are not ashamed to let everyone know where they stand.

Christians, on the other hand, most of the time, don't want to offend anyone by making a stand for what God says is true. It is not even their own opinion. It is the Creator, the Almighty God's opinion, yet they shrink back. We must ask ourselves, are we ashamed of what or who we claim to follow?

If we look at the Muslims and their lifestyle, we could learn a thing or two. They stand out in a crowd, but don't compromise to fit in. They too are not ashamed of their beliefs or practices and they take them very seriously.

This dedication and obedience to one's God, my friends, is the answer to our questions. Please ponder these thoughts and examine your beliefs and lifestyle.

October 2-3, 2020

We will be having an opening presentation Friday October 2nd at 8pm EST and then speakers throughout Saturday. No registration necessary and the event is FREE. More info coming soon!
