Not equipped to engage? Try these:

Pro-abortion advocate: It's a private choice between a woman and her doctor.
You: Should we allow parents to abuse a 2-yr. old if it's done in private?

Pro-abortion advocate: If you cannot afford a child, you should be free to abort it.
You: Can you kill a 2-yr. old if he/she gets too expensive?

Pro-abortion advocate: This is a very complex issue. Women agonize over it.
You: Is it OK to kill my 2 yr. old if I agonize over it?

Pro-abortion advocate: Is it fair to bring into the world an unwanted child?
You: Is it fair to kill a 2 yr. old child if I no longer want him?

Pro-abortion advocate: You are forcing your morality on all women.
You: If you saw a mother abusing her child, you would feel justified in forcing your morality upon her.

“As I look back across the 25 yrs. separating me from that revolting extravaganza playing itself out on the bodies of pregnant women and their slaughtered babies, I am struck by the ...moral and spiritual vacuum at the core of this...And yet, the thing was so obviously sordid. Why couldn't we make the link between the ethical and the moral, between the shoddy practices and shabby practitioners, the evident greed and callous motives, between the crassness of the enterprise and those involved in it, between all these ethical indicators and the grotesque immorality of the act itself?” Dr. Bernard Nathanson, The Hand of God

Those who love God have a duty to stop our society's apathetic acceptance of barbarity and brutality.
