2024 KOG Missions Conference

COMPETE WELL - FINISH THE RACE - KEEP THE FAITH

ENDURANCE

2 Timothy 4:1-8

A BIG thank you to all the presenters at the 2024 KOG Missions Conference! We were truly encouraged to compete well, to finish the race, and to keep the faith until Jesus returns; as well as to endure without compromise.

Anthony Buzzard opened the conference addressing the saints and their salvation and the need to get the right foundation so that they can endure to the end. You can watch the replay & read his paper "Keeping the Truth and Enduring to the End" to be encouraged and inspired.

Nancy Livengood shared about her new YouTube channel, "Bible Truths Matter." Listen to the interview and check out her channel. Please subscribe and encourage her as she desires to share Bible lessons and the simple faith of Jesus.

Joe Martin, in spite of the adversity of going blind, continues in Kingdom work and encouraged the brethren to endure faithfully until the coming of Christ. He was an inspiration to many and you can watch his replay if you too desire to endure any adversity you are experiencing at this time.

Dan Gill closed out the second evening with a powerful message on enduring in unity and the importance of biblical truth being what binds believers together in the body of Christ.

Saturday morning we had a lovely time of encouraging fellowship with our special guest. As usual he went to bed with his cup full. He also shared some thoughts on the importance of clinging to truth as we serve and wait for the coming of our Messiah.

Merryl DeMott then shared her testimony and a bit about her ministry trip to Pakistan this past summer. It was amazing how God made it all possible and how He used her to bless so many.

Conference Replays

You can find all the individual presentations and speaker's papers (if they had one) at: kogmissions.com/online2024

Haroon and Maryam shared about their faith, their mission, the work, and the team. Watch the replay to be encouraged by their faithfulness and passion to endure in truth and in ministry without compromise in Pakistan and in the UK.

Dennis Baldwin shared a presentation, "Have you Counted the Cost?" We were very encouraged by this great question and we should be asking ourselves this question daily as we commit to following Christ!

Kenneth LaPrade persevered in his quest for God's truths after being indoctrinated in a cult for many years. This year his message inspired us to hang in there and be tenacious with biblical truths. You can read his paper as well if you prefer, as you are hang in there until Jesus comes.

A brother shared his personal journey as a Jehovah's Witness and the crisis of faith that happened in his own mind and life because of the various teachings of the organization.

Carlos Xavier presented on the Law of sin and death. You can study from his paper or be spurred on by the replay of his presentation and our discussion afterwards. As Christians we must seek to overcome and gain freedom.

I closed this year's conference speaking on enduring with the Kingdom hope. That is what will get us across the finish line!

Conference Fellowship

I was greatly blessed and encouraged by all our speakers to be steadfast in endurance and faith, and to compete well, to finish the race, and to keep the faith!

I was also built up by those who participated online in the chat. Even if we were not in person physically, God's spirit united us in love, in purpose, and in faith. Thank you for watching and commenting!

Another highlight of the conference was when some of the sisters from our Women's Bible Fellowships shared their testimonies of what our like-minded fellowship and our Bible studies means to them.

Unfortunately, the word "fellowship" is so loosely used today that even in the Christian community it has lost its biblical meaning when talking about the "church," that is, the gathering of believers.

Biblical fellowship is fellowship in spirit, and in order to have this intimate community, you must share in the same spirit and be of like mind in your beliefs. If not, it is merely some other fellowship, not biblical fellowship in His light.

Today, because of the internet, we can gather to fellowship, study, encourage one another, pray for one another, and break bread together.

Unfortunately, many are falling away from the faith of Jesus, as prophesied. If we want to remain strong in Jesus' faith so that we can endure today, and in the future, if we want to Compete well, finish the race, and keep the faith, we must not neglect strong like-minded, Jesus-minded, fellowship. This is what helps us endure.

I have 2 online women's Bible studies and just started another one for both men and women. If you would like more information, please email me at tracy@kogmissions.com.

Over the years people have come and gone because of different beliefs or other reasons. We are not looking to increase numbers or engage in debates. It isn't about growth in numbers, we want to give those who are truly seeking Yahweh, the only true God of the Universe, an opportunity to study and learn with us, and we want to let like-minded believers know that there are other scattered brethren around the world who don't neglect meeting together and who desire to encourage one another in the faith of Jesus, without compromise.

Acts 2:42 gives us an example of this community of believers. They were devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. This is what we do online.

I personally have been extremely blessed and I hope you will get a little taste of the blessing with what the sisters shared in the video.
