Russia

Maksim has done a lot of traveling visiting brethren and baptizing new brothers and sisters this past year, as well as traveling to Turkey to visit and be encouraged by Meryll & myself.

He is currently traveling (in a similar truck 4-5 days) and prayers are appreciated. When he returns he will go to an elderly sister, Vera, south of Omsk, as he does at the end/beginning of every year. Her cousin, Tatyana, another sister, comes up from Kazakhstan and they spend a week or so together and Maksim helps with physical labor needs and snow removal. Please pray for their fellowship and time together.

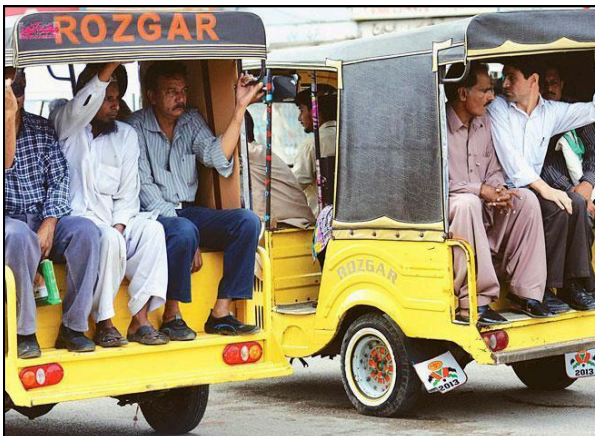

Maksim continues to follow God’s lead and try different “advertising,” or seed sowing, online and in different groups. If ministries want to evangelize or do missions, and reap a harvest, they need to do the hard, and often discouraging, work. We can never neglect or compromise truth but must continue sowing HIS seed faithfully.

(100% of all donations received go to respective ministries.)

Pakistan

Newly ordained pastor Parvez rides a rickshaw 2 hours to a neighboring town to preach every Sunday. This is a cheaper mode of transportation, where as a taxi would only take 1 hour to get there.

School

The school new year will be starting in January. There are 32 students this coming year since 8 learned to read and write. They still need donations to help get the workbooks and school supplies.

Thank You Kingdom Partners!

Another year of ministry and missions has passed and as I reflect on 2024 a lot has taken place, some good, some bad, but in the end Yahweh is still on His throne and He is good and He is faithful, and His Kingdom is coming!

I continue to be overwhelmed with the love, support, and encouragement from brothers and sisters from all around the world. Your steadfast partnership in the Great Commission and the love you show to our fellow saints gives me great joy and helps me to endure and to continue ministering as I have been called.

Your prayers and financial sacrifices have blessed many people in ways you will only know when Jesus comes. You help make it possible for seeds of the Gospel of the Kingdom to be sown among the nations and you empower those sowing and reaping to disciple and feed Jesus' growing flock.

We are grateful and thank each one of you for your service!

Maksim, Haroon & Maryam, the pastors and evangelists in Pakistan, Restoration Fellowship, and myself are committed to the front lines. We serve day in and day out and will not compromise the faith of Jesus, or in the full proclamation of the coming Kingdom.

With your prayers and support you serve right alongside us as we do what God has given us to do. You are in Pakistan, Russia, and all the ends of the earth where the internet reaches. This partnership and teamwork brings us all alongside our lord Jesus and helps us to faithfully continue the mission he started over 2000 years ago.

May God bless you richly in the coming year and may His face shine upon all you do for His glory and coming Kingdom. May He give you the strength to endure and may you have the heart and mind of Christ, choosing daily to be a good steward with all that He has entrusted to you, starting with His biblical truths and the Kingdom hope.

What's in Store for 2025?

At the end of the year I usually take some time with the Lord for direction and what ministry projects to pursue in the coming year, beyond the every day ministry that I do.

His timing is perfect and Lord willing, thanks to Carlos from Restoration Fellowship for putting me in touch with several Muslims, I hope to have an interview or two in regard to Islamic eschatology. I have been doing work on this for several years now and I hope to learn more from these men.

The new year will be opening with a debate I will be moderating between Carlos Xavier and Stacey Turbeville on whether Revelation is past or future. It will be online Friday, January 3, at 7:30 pm EST . I enjoy moderating the debates and am grateful for all the hard work Carlos puts into preparing, and that he is the one taking the fire with many of his opponents. We realize most of them won't change their views, but if we can help those watching, that is the goal.

I will be continuing the Proverbs series I started last year. You can watch the previous ones here.

Our Tuesday women's Bible study is going through the basic timeline of the end times and I plan to make a series from that as well, Lord willing.

It has also been on my heart to do some videos and perhaps a panel, on the mental health of a believer. I am not a "therapist," but I do believe that Jesus can help us through anything in life. No burden is too small or too big for him to bear. And the Father promised to be with us as we "go through the valley of the shadow of death."

In 2025 I pray that you will hold onto them as they walk beside you through whatever valley you may be in. God never promised us that we wouldn't go through the valleys, but He did say that He would be with us, and that we are going through; so keep going, one step at a time.

It is the Kingdom hope that gets us through and gives us strength to endure today. Many of the sisters in our studies are suffering with debilitating health issues and are in such pain, but their faith and perseverance is such a blessing and great encouragement to me and many others. Their hope is in the resurrection and a new body when Jesus returns. But what is even more of a blessing to see, is that they have purpose. They continue to pray for others and encourage them; and they desire to share their faith and hope as opportunity arises. They are faithful Kingdom servants.

The coming Kingdom hope that Jesus proclaimed, is the same Kingdom hope that he commissioned his followers to proclaim! This is the only hope for anyone & anything.
