Taking the Teachings of Jesus to the Nations & Connecting Like-minded Believers

New Brother in Faith

After spending about a week with Sergei, Maksim traveled a day and a half by train back to Omsk where he repacked his bag to leave for Kazakhstan the next morning.

Thank you for your prayers;. His travels went well; it was not too hot and he shared a train compartment with descent people.

Welcome brother Sergei!

Last month Maksim flew to Kazan to visit sister Fazilya and then took a train about 24 hours to Vologda to baptize and spend time with Sergei.

Maksim was able to share God's truths with Sergei's friend, and the elderly aunt who Sergei lives with. He also met with a woman and a young man that he has been in contact with from his online group. When visiting Fazilya, he also met with several people.

His online group has been a great tool in "marketing" and evangelism and it will soon hit 100K followers. Even with so many followers, we see that like Jesus said, only few will follow.

Next Stop: Kazakhstan

After returning from several weeks of travel and ministry, Maksim took a van to Kazakhstan (travel time about 11 hours.) As he said, there is no time to let down!

Brother Ibragim came from Uzbekistan to spend 3 days with Maksim. Maksim baptized him in 2023 after meeting him as a result of flyers that Maksim was hanging around the construction area where he was working in Omsk at the time.

Maksim had the brothers in Uzbekistan and Tadjekistan write in their languages a flyer that asked if they wanted to know Jesus? And that he was not God," since many workers were Muslim.

Ibragim was interested because he had become disenchanted with protestantism and was considering returning to Islam, that is, until he met Maksim!

Next Manksim took a bus about 4 hours to visit an elderly couple, brother Roman and sister Katya who were ex-JWs.

After 3 days he returned to the city he was staying in and spent about 5 days with brother Voxhid and sister Nadezhda who came to Kazakhstan to visit him from Tajikistan.

Voxhid is the brother who was beat up by his

Islamic family and then he had to leave his government job. He and his wife moved away to a small town and after he healed from the traumas he was able to get a different job.

While in Kazakhstan Maksim also met with several other people with whom he had met online. and had been corresponding.

Thank you for your prayers for his travel and the travel of the brethren. Their fellowship was encouraging and refreshing for everyone.

Please continue to hold Maksim and brethren up in prayer and ask that God would strengthen them in the faith and that they would continue to stand firm, in spite of the persecution.

Pakistan

Please pray for Pastor Haroon's mother, Razia. She had a stroke.

Also, please pray for the brothers as they desire to go on an evangelism trip.

Consider donating to the travel expenses and be a part of the ministry in Pakistan. Praise the Lord finances came to get the booklets printed for the trip. Thank you!

In a similar way to how the kingdom of God unlocks understanding of the entire Bible, this book resolves many confusing issues about Jesus' New Covenant ministry and his relationship to the old Mosaic law."
