Taking the Teachings of Jesus to the Nations & Connecting Like-minded Believers

Two New Sisters in Kazakhstan

Maksim was very grateful for a successful and «ideal» trip to Kazakhstan in October. He and the sisters thank you for your prayers and they thank God for His many blessings and for the opportunity to share the faith of Jesus with many of their friends and family.

Maksim bussed 7 hours to Kokshetau in northern Kazakhstan where he met sister Olga, who traveled there and stayed with a relative, as did our new sister Oksana (63). Sister Anfisa (65) opened her apartment to the brethren and to all who they would meet with. Maksim said it was like a ministry headquarters and such a blessing! It is much better to meet in a home rather than at a cafe! They provided tea and were able to relax around the table for many hours without looking at the clock.

Maksim had met Oksana in 2022. She, like Olga is a former Jehovah's Witness. They stayed in touch over the years, as did Oksana and Olga. Maksim met Anfisa in 2023 in the hospital where he serves, and they too continued studying. He also put her in touch with Olga.

Anfisa's family were Russian-German protestants and followed a very strict baptist-like religion. As a child she left that faith and only later in life did she become interested in God. Her brother and sister returned to Germany, but she remained in Kazakhstan. A friend of hers belongs to a similar group that she left, but because they are not under communism now, they practice their strict rules. (Anfisa's parents were afraid to do so because if they did, the government would take their children.) They tried sharing the freedom we have in Christ, compared to the churches strict man-made rules: no drums, no sports (but you could play soccer, just with no goals), and the women have to wear a head covering. Any deviation risked excommunication from the church and losing one's salvation. The women will not even remove their head covering for a brain scan at the hospital.

The Joy of the Lord!

Both sisters confessed their desire to change their lives and be baptized. Maksim takes baptism very seriously and he shared with me that with each baptism he feels he is responsible before God.

They spent a week together and then Maksim took a 4-hour bus to Ostana and met with a Russian man who lived there with whom he has been corresponding. After 3 days he took the bus back to the sisters and continued meeting with their relatives, friends, and neighbors in Anfisa's small one-room apartment for another week and a half before returning to Omsk.

It sounded like Paul's experience, «day after day people came» to hear God's truths. People saw the sister's and Maksim's gratitude, joyful fellowship, and the genuine love between them. Maksim and sisters rejoiced in their like-minded faith and how they were unified in truth, as well as for the opportunity to share the faith of Jesus and the Kingdom hope with others.

When I saw the pictures of the sisters, I thought, "What joy!" and it made me smile inside and out. After talking to Maksim, days later because his internet was out when he got home, hearing what he shared, it confirmed that joy. It makes me ask myself, do I show that joy to others? We have such a great hope and that should give us unspeakable joy no matter what is going on in our lives.

Please pray for the new sisters and for all those who heard the Gospel of the Kingdom and about the faith of Jesus. Pray for them as they continue to share with all who will listen (and remember, this is a Muslim country.) Glory to God, and to them, when Jesus comes!

Grateful & Rejoicing
~ A Baptism in Spain ~

What great teamwork in ministry! A brother and sister from the Isle of Man were vacationing in Spain and they have wanted to be baptized for sometime. Alane Rozelle and her husband were on a biking vacation in Spain at the same time and flew into the city not far from where the couple was staying. I am grateful for her heart for ministry and Alane and her husband's willingness to take their first day in Spain to take the train to where the couple was staying and baptize them in the sea.

Thank you, Alane and Glory to God how He worked this out on such short notice (less than a week)!
